-89	UNIQUE TITLE (see Unique Title Courses, p. 27)
-90 and -91	WORKSHOPS – A supervised group concentrating on a specified subject and for a specified period.
-92 and -93	SEMINARS – Designated to allow students to engage in a course of study under the guidance of faculty who meet regularly with them for reports and discussions. Content varies. All seminars carrying specific credits should be listed as other courses rather than as lecture courses. The University recognizes two types of seminars at the graduate level. “Open” seminars (-92 and -93) are not content specific and may not address similar material from term to term. They may be organized around the ongoing research of those enrolled, current research of appropriate faculty members, presentations by visiting scholars, reviews of the latest developments in the disciplines, or other targets of intellectual opportunity. “Topical” seminars (non-reserved numbers) are advanced study experiences which deal with established content areas of the disciplines which are subject specific.
-94 and -95	INDEPENDENT STUDY (Special Studies) – Student investigates an area of special interest under the direction and supervision of faculty. (see Independent Study, p. 20)
-96 and -97	GROUP STUDY (Special Studies) – A group of students working together under the direction and supervision of faculty who investigate an area of special interest. (see Group Study, p. 18)
-98	RESEARCH – Requires a paper and may carry either fixed or variable credit.
-99	THESIS OR DISSERTATION – Research for the thesis or dissertation. Offered for variable credit.
